

Dalmatian Coast

Just across the Adriatic from Greece and Italy, Croatia is fast becoming one of Europe's best options for honeymooners. From gorgeous beaches to vibrant museums and galleries, this country has everything you need to make celebrating those post wedding vows unforgettable.

Zagreb

The city of Zagreb is often a surprise to those unfamiliar with the new Eastern Europe. Sophisticated and evocative, it offers couples a getaway to an urban city full of art installations, authentic culinary experiences and a lively cafe culture. Couples can explore the cake shops, food market and St. Mark's Cathedral.

Hotel Recommendation: Esplanade Zagreb Hotel

Dubrovnik

Overlooking the ocean, the old Town of Dubrovnik has been called the "pearl of the Adriatic". With its breathtaking seaside views and warm, sunny climate, couples can spend the day hiking the perimeter or tracing the path of the walls by kayak. If they're Game of Thrones fans, they can explore King's Landing.

Hotel Recommendation: Hotel Lapad

Hvar

Everyone from celebrities to movie stars seems to find themselves on the small island of Hvar. Yet despite its hedonistic reputation for parties and revelry, it never seems to lose its refined reputation. Whether for a day trip or an extended stay, Hvar offers couples much to love: from chic bars to Gothic palaces, authentic eats to secluded beaches.

Hotel Recommendation: Request in advance

Croatian 101

Hello: Pozdrav (poe-z-drawv)
Please: Molim Te (moel-eem-tay)
Thank you: Hvala Ti (hu-vall-uh-tee)
Excuse me: Oprosti (oh-pruh-stee)
Yes: Da (dah)
No: Ne (nay)

Expected Weather °F

Jan-Mar	Apr-Jun	Jul-Sep	Oct-Dec
50°	64°	75°	58°

To make a booking, please contact:

Currency

Croatian Kuna

Kn

EuropeExpress