2 days

Cliffs Moher, Bunratty Castle, Burren & Galway

A day trip to Ireland's rugged and unique mid-western coast, through Limerick on the mighty River Shannon and then on to the imposing Bunratty Castle with its lovely folk park. See the stunning Cliffs of Moher, the Burren and Galway Bay. A flavor of Galway City concludes the tour before returning to Dublin. (Note: Meals are not included.)

Full Day

Giant's Causeway, Glens of Antrim & Atlantic Coast

Travel by train from Dublin to Belfast where you meet the tour. Enjoy a fascinating day on the famous Antrim Coast Road crossing the lovely Glens of Antrim en route to Ballyseede and the Carrick-a-rede Rope Bridge. See the spectacular views as you continue of Giant's Causeway and Dunluce Castle before returning to Dublin by train. (Note: Meals are not included, and you must bring British currency to pay locally if you wish to cross the rope bridge.)

Full Day

Cork, Blarney Castle & the Queenstown Story

A highly enjoyable trip to Ireland's Southern Capital, Cork, where you start your tour visiting Blarney Castle and seeing the famous Blarney Stone. Then, experience a scenic journey alongside Cork Harbour to the "Queenstown Story" Heritage Center. Famous as the Titanic's last port of call and the embarkation point for generations of Irish emigrants to the new world. (Note: Meals are not included.)

Full Day

Wicklow Mountaineer, Ballykissangel, Glendalough

Enjoy a lovely half-day tour into the Wicklow Mountains to visit Ireland's most famous village, Ballykissangel, situated in the beautiful Vale of Acova. See hand weaving at the Woolen Mills, shop and take time to sample local fare. Finally visit the Monastic city of Glendalough (Glen of the two lakes) all in beautiful mountain scenery.

Half Day

Guinness Storehouse

Experience one of the world's best known brands with 7 floors of exhibitions, and learn how Dublin's prided beer is created for the world on a daily basis. Enjoy a pint in the new Gravity Bar situated on the top floor with a 360 degree view over Dublin.
