

FRANCE ITINERARY

1. Amboise

In the Loire Valley sits Amboise a small town with narrow streets and small shops. Above the main square stands Chateau d'Amboise an impressive and extravagant castle that became styled and enlarged by each King that lived there. Then, we'll visit a gothic chapel from 1491 that rises above other fortifications and holds the tomb of Leonardo da Vinci. Next, we'll explore the nearby official residence of Leonardo, the Château of Clos Lucé. Here, Leonardo spent the last three years of his life working for the king of France.

2. Luynes

Through the vineyards of the Loire Valley sits Luynes, our base to explore the local towns around the region. Fall into an enchanting atmosphere with the 12th century Luynes Castle and the surrounding UNESCO World Heritage sites. Being off-the-beaten path, but close to fantastic historical highlights, will make your guests feel like locals without heavy crowds and lines. Nearby we'll explore Tours, with its' medieval center; perfect for shoppers looking to capture French delicacies in covered market stalls. Then, admire masterpieces by other Italian artists like Rembrandt and Mantegna in the Museum of Fine Arts.

3. Paris

What is a visit to France without a stop under the 'City of Lights'? Romantics, art lovers, and any one that suffers from a degree of wanderlust; can't steer away from the pleasures of Paris. At the top of the agenda, we enter the glass-domed Louvre Museum to see da Vinci's artwork up close. Examine and determine for yourself, is Mona Lisa is smiling or frowning? Next, see the first painting Leonard is known to have painted in Milan, The Virgin of the Rocks. After the guided tour of the Louvre, you can choose between free time or more guided visits throughout Paris.
