

1. MADRID

Start off by staying in Madrid, where the history of the city can be tasted in the casual gathering known as tapeo. From rich, local cheeses and meats to refreshing gazpacho, enjoy the city's humble, tasty tapas. Take a half-day Authentic Tapas Walking Tour, and experience the city's favorite local spots.

2. SAN SEBASTIAN

Next, travel to a small Basque town, San Sebastian, considered to be one of the world's great food cities. Explore the culture and hospitality with a pintxos tapas tour, and taste a range of traditional rustic bites to petite servings of gourmet dishes.

3. BARCELONA

Finish in Barcelona and discover an ethnic enclave with its own language, traditions and flavors. Stay in a traditional country manor, where you can learn how to make cava and sample from the home's barrel cellar. Then, take a tour of Oller del Mas Castle.
